

TAFT CABINET WILL HAVE ONLY THREE NEW MEN

Trust-Buster Kellogg Skated for Attorney General, and Loeb for Navy.

CORTELYOU TO GO.

Hitchcock as Postmaster-General—Others to Be Cared For.

FORECAST OF TAFT'S CABINET.

Secretary of State—Elliott Root, New York.
Secretary of the Treasury—George Von L. Meyer, Massachusetts.
Secretary of War—Luke E.
Wright, Tennessee.
Postmaster-General—Frank H.
Hitchcock, Massachusetts.
Secretary of the Navy—William Loeb Jr., New York.
Attorney-General—Frank B.
Kellogg, Minnesota.
Secretary of the Interior—James B. Garfield, Ohio.
Secretary of Agriculture—James Wilson, Iowa.
Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Oscar S. Straus, New York.

When Mr. Taft becomes President the above will be his first Cabinet, according to friends close to the victorious Republican candidate, but it is not to be permanent. Mr. Root, it is understood, may remain as Secretary of State as long as Mr. Taft is President.
It is not believed that Gen. Luke E.
Wright, of Tennessee, who is classed as a Democrat, though he supported Taft and stump for him, will long remain in the Cabinet. He was installed as Secretary of War because of his intimate knowledge of Philippine and Panama conditions.
Mr. Hitchcock has been slated all along for Postmaster-General in the event of Mr. Taft's election. Root will be made for him by moving up the present Postmaster-General, Mr. Meyer, to Mr. Cortelyou's place as Secretary of the Treasury.

Loeb is in Doubt.
William Loeb Jr. indicated some time ago that while he appreciated the statement of Mr. Taft that he could have anything he wanted "within reason," he was going out of politics into business.
It is known, however, that Mr. Loeb, as Secretary to Mr. Roosevelt, has taken almost as much interest in the navy as the President himself, and has learned much of the details of the department.

Frank D. Kellogg is National Commissioner for Minnesota, has been "trust buster" for the Administration, and will be the next Attorney General.
Mr. Taft feels that young Mr. Garfield, the present head of the Interior Department, has shown ability that should be rewarded by reappointment.
James Wilson, of Iowa, announced his purpose last winter of quitting the public service when Mr. Roosevelt went out of office. He thought at that time he had served longer continuously than any other member of any Cabinet.
He entered the McKinley Cabinet and has remained with Mr. Roosevelt since.
But it was decided to change the World Almanac that William Taft was Attorney-General twelve years and this time the President's Secretary of Agriculture decided that he would like to stay long enough to see an experiment of himself. Who will succeed him six months after March 4 will be determined largely by the political execution of that particular time.

Straus's Work Unfinished.
Oscar S. Straus, as Secretary of Commerce and Labor, established what amounts to a free Government employment agency, whereby immigrants are shipped from Ellis Island to jobs already obtained for them in the States.
Results thus far have been encouraging, but the plan still is an experiment.
Mr. Straus's interest in it is so deep that there is no likelihood that he will be disturbed in working it out.
Fred W. Carpenter, who will be secretary to the President, succeeding Mr.
Loeb, is a native of Minnesota, but spent most of his life, before going to Mr. Taft, in California. Mr. Taft says of him what Mr. Roosevelt says of Loeb, that he "is the best private secretary a man ever had." Mr. Carpenter was recommended to Mr. Taft nine years ago, when Mr. Taft was in the Philippines, and has remained with him since, twice encircling the globe and making side trips to Cuba and Panama as the average man would take a year to the country. He is thirty-four, retiring, discreet, modest, but with a firmness that is startling.

TAFT WILL HAVE MANY "LAME DUCKS" TO PROVIDE FOR.

There are a lot of "lame ducks" President Taft is expected to take care of.
In Indiana Charles R. Landis and Jesse Overstreet, who were defeated for Congress, will not be forgotten. Mr. Overstreet may be made First Assistant Postmaster-General, and Mr. Landis is mentioned for the place of Public Printer.

James E. Watson, defeated Republican candidate for Governor of Indiana, is expected to get a Consul-Generalship, while it is equally certain that Chester I. Long, of Kansas, who lost out as candidate for Senator, will be provided for.
W. P. Hepburn, the author of the State bill, will probably get a nice Treasury berth.

John Hays Hammond is expected to go into the Cabinet or be given "something just as good" on the foreign list, and Arthur I. Vorys, of Ohio, Mr. Taft's personal campaign manager, may be made Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan, is expected to get one of the big Ambassadorships instead of being made Secretary of the Navy.

Wade H. Hays, of Ohio, is slated for an assistant attorney-generalship, which will come to him before the change of chief executive. Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, would take an Ambassadorship.
He suffered much at the hands of Taft, forgot and forgave, and now wants him.

William Nelson Cromwell wants a place, and it has been suggested that the Harriman attorney may be made Minister to Panama.

George T. Oliver, the rich Pittsburg manufacturer and editor, raised a pot of money for the Taft campaign, and wants a good place. Others in the "must" list include Charles E. Magoon, at present Governor-General of Cuba, who is on the boards for Governor-General of the Philippines, with a Cabinet portfolio later; F. M. Johnson, of St.
Louis, the well-known lawyer, who took up the labor end of the Taft fight; former Representative John P. Lacey, of Iowa, desired to become Commandant of the General Land Office; Cecil Lyon, the national committeeman from Texas; George D. Knapp, the brilliant California orator who greatly assisted Taft on the Pacific coast; and former Representative Morrell of Pennsylvania, who threw a few bricks at Knox's Presidential boom. Victor Rosewater, of Nebraska, is slated for a good place.

Proof is inexhaustible that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carries women safely through the Change of Life.
Read the letter Mrs. E. Hanson, 304 E. Long St., Columbus, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:
"I was passing through the Change of Life, and suffered from nervousness, headaches and other annoying symptoms. My doctor told me that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for me, and since taking it I feel so much better, and I can again do my own work. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me during this trying period."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?
Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice.
She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
